FOURTH SCHEDULE
(Section 85)

SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. (1) From the commencement of this Act an appropriate authority established under a repealed Act shall exist only for the purpose of winding up its affairs and disposing of any matter pending and for no other purpose.

Winding up of affairs of Appropriate authorities

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the a repealed Act or in any other written law an appropriate authority shall have, for the purpose of winding up its affairs, power to do anything which is necessary or expedient for that purpose or which is incidental to that purpose, including, but without limiting those powers, power to enter into and carry out agreements and arrangements for the transfer of its assets, rights, liabilities and obligations to the Agency or the Government.

2. (1) On or after the appointed date, there shall be transferred to, vest in and subsist against the Agency by virtue of this Act and without further assurance all assets, rights and obligations which immediately before the appointed date were the assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of an appropriate authority.

Vesting of assets and liabilities

(2) Subject to subparagraph (1), every deed, bond and agreement, other than an agreement for personnel service, to which an appropriate authority was a party immediately before the commencement of this Act or on the appointed date whether or not of such a nature that rights, liabilities and obligations could be assigned, shall unless its subject matter or terms make it impossible that it should have effect as modified, as provided under this paragraph, have effect as if—

- (a) the Agency had been party to it;
- (b) for any reference to an appropriate authority there was substituted, with respect anything falling to be done on or after the commencement of this Act, a reference to the Agency; or
- (c) for any reference to any officer of an appropriate authority, not being a party to it and beneficially interested, there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the commencement of this Act or appointed date a reference to such officer of the Agency as the Agency shall designate.

3. (1) Where under this Act, any assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of an appropriate authority are deemed transferred to the Agency in respect of which transfer a written law provides for registration, the Agency shall make an application in writing to the appropriate registration authority for registration of the transfer.

Registration of property to be transferred

(2) The registration authority, referred to in subparagraph (1), shall make such entries in the appropriate register as shall give effect to the transfer and, where applicable, issue to the transferee concerned a certificate of title in respect of the property or make necessary amendments to the register and shall endorse the deeds relating to the title, right or obligation concerned; and no registration fees, stamp duty or other duties shall be payable in respect of the transaction.

Legal proceedings

4. (1) Without limiting the other provisions of this Act, where any right, liability or obligation vests in the Agency by virtue of this Act, the Agency and all other persons shall, as from the appointed date, have the same rights, powers and remedies and, in particular, the same rights as to the instituting or defending of legal proceedings or the making or resisting of applications to any authority for ascertaining or perfecting that right, liability or obligation as they would have had if it had at all times been a right, liability or obligation of the Agency.

(2) Any legal proceedings or applications to any appropriate authority pending immediately before the appointed date by or against an appropriate authority in respect of any appropriate authority may be continued by or against the Agency.

(3) After the commencement of this Act, proceedings in respect of any right, liability or obligation which was vested in, held, enjoyed, incurred or suffered by an appropriate authority may be instituted by or against the Agency.
