Railways Transfer of Statutory Powers Act, 1935

Chapter 462

Commenced on 1 January 1937

[This is the version of this document at 31 December 1996.]

[2 of 1935; Government Notice 497 of 1964]

An Act to authorise the transfer of the title, rights, powers and privileges for the construction, maintenance and working of certain lines of railway.

[See section 89 of the Zambia Railways Act (Cap. 767 of the old edition) which empowers the Minister to amend, modify or repeal the provisions of this Act.]

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Railways Transfer of Statutory Powers Act.

2. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

"the Companies" means the Rhodesia Railways Limited and the Mashonaland Railway Company Limited, or either of them;

"the undertakings" means the undertakings, railways, lands, works, movable and immovable property, powers, authorities, privileges, exemptions, rights of action and suit, and all other the contractual and other rights and interests to which the Companies are from time to time entitled.

3. Power to transfer title, rights, etc.

The Companies are hereby empowered, in any sale, transfer or assignment approved by the President of the undertakings or any portion of such undertakings as part of any scheme for the redemption, conversion or consolidation of the debenture debt of the Companies, to sell, transfer or assign the title, rights, powers and privileges conferred upon the Companies in the enactments set out in the Schedule or such of them as relate to the portion of the undertakings so sold, transferred or assigned, and thereupon the successors or assigns of the Companies shall be vested with the said title, rights, powers and privileges of the Companies in as full and ample a manner as if they had been conferred upon them by the said enactments and shall be subject to the obligations and conditions placed upon the Companies in the said enactments.
