(7) Where a member is for any reasonable cause unable to attend any meeting of a management board, the member may, in writing, nominate another person from the same organisation to attend such meeting in that member's stead and such person be deemed to be a member for the purpose of such meeting.

(8) A management board may invite any person whose presence in its opinion is desirable, to attend and to participate in the deliberations of a meeting of the management board but such person shall have not vote.

(9) The validity of any proceedings, act or decision of a management board shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the board or by any defect in the appointment of any member or by reason that any person not entitled so to do, took part the proceedings.

(10) A management board shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings of every meeting of the board and every meeting of any committee established by the management board.

5. (1) A management board may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, establish committees and delegate to any such committee such of its functions as it thinks fit.

(2) A management board may appoint as members of the committee established under subsection (1), persons who are or are not members of the board and such persons shall hold office such period as the board may determine.

(3) Subject to any specific or general direction of a management board any committee established under subsection (1), may regulate its own procedure.

6. The members of a management board shall be paid such remuneration and allowance as a management board may, with the approval of the Minister, determine.

7. (1) If a member is present at a meeting of a management board or any committee of the board at which any matter is the subject of consideration and in which matter the member or the member's spouse is directly or indirectly interest in a private capacity, the member shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose such interest and shall not, unless the board otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote, any question touching such matter.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under this section shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

8. (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by or on behalf of a management board, publish or disclose to any unauthorised person, otherwise than in the course of that person's duties, the contents of any documents, communication or information whatever, which relates to, and which has come to that person's knowledge in the course of his duties under this Act.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, upon conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

(3) If any person having any information which to that person's knowledge has been published or disclosed in contravention of sub-paragraph (1) unlawfully publishes or communicates any such information to any other person, that person shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding five thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both.
