(2) A member may resign upon giving one month's notice in writing to the Minister.

(3) The office of member shall become vacant—
(a) if a member is an undischarged bankrupt;
(b) upon the member's death;
(c) if a member becomes mentally or physically incapable of performing the duties of a member of the Board;
(d) if a member is convicted of an offence under any written law and sentenced to serve a term of imprisonment of not less than six months without the option of a fine;

Tenure of office of member.
(e) on the member ceasing to be a representative of the organisation which nominated the member; or

(f) if the member is absent, without reasonable excuse, from three consecutive meetings of the Board of which the member has had notice.

(4) On the expiration of the period for which a member is appointed, the member shall continue to hold office until the member's successor is appointed, but in no case shall the further period exceed three months.

7. Whenever the office of a member becomes vacant before the expiry of the term of office, the Minister may appoint another person to hold office for the unexpired part of the term from the same organisation as the member who vacates office, and such person shall be eligible for re-appointment.

8. (1) The Board shall, with the approval of the Minister, appoint a Managing Director who shall be the chief executive officer of the Board and who shall, subject to the control and direction of the Board, be responsible for implementation of the decisions of the Board and the day to day administration of the Board.

(2) The Board shall, with the approval of the Minister, determine the terms and conditions of service of the Managing Director.

(3) The Board may in writing delegate to the Managing Director such of its functions as it may consider necessary.

(4) The Managing Director shall attend meetings of the Board and any committee of the Board and may address the meetings, but shall have no vote.

9. (1) The Board shall appoint a Secretary on such terms and conditions as the Board may, with the approval of the Minister, determine.

(2) The Secretary shall, subject to the directions of the Managing Director, perform such duties as may be assigned to the Secretary.

(3) The Board may, appoint such other staff of the Board as it considers necessary for the performance of its functions under this Act, on such terms and conditions as it may, with the approval of the Minister determine.

10. (1) The seal of the Board shall be such device as may be determined by the Board and shall be kept by the Secretary.
(2) The affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by the Chairperson or the Vice-Chairperson and the Secretary or one other person authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the Board.

(3) Any document purporting to be a document under the seal of the Board or issued on behalf of the Board shall be received in evidence and shall be executed or issued, as the case may be, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

11. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

(2) The Board shall meet for the transaction of business at least once in every three months at such places and such times as the Chairperson may decide.

(3) Upon giving notice of not less than fourteen days, a meeting of the Board may be called by the Chairperson and shall be called if not less than two thirds of the members so request in writing. Provided that if the urgency of any particular matter does not permit the giving of such notice; a special meeting may be called upon giving shorter notice.

(4) The quorum at any meeting of the Board shall be seven members.

(5) There shall preside at any meeting of the Board—

(a) the Chairperson;

(b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson; or

(c) in the absence of the Chairperson and the Vice Chairperson such member as the members present may elect for the purpose of that meeting.

(6) A decision of the Board on any question shall be by a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting, and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

(7) Where a member is for any reasonable cause unable to attend any meeting of the Board, the member may, in writing, nominate another person from the same organisation to attend such meeting in the member's stead and such person shall be deemed to be a member for the purpose of such meeting.
(8) The Board may invite any person, whose presence is, in its opinion desirable, to attend and to participate in the deliberations of a meeting of the Board but such person shall have no vote.

(9) The Board shall cause to be kept minutes of the proceedings of every meeting of the Board and of every meeting of any committee appointed by the Board.

(10) The validity of any proceedings, act or decision shall not be affected by—

(a) any vacancy in the membership of the Board;
(b) any defect in the appointment of any member; or
(c) by reason that any person not entitled so to do, took part in the proceedings.

12. (1) The Board may for the purpose of performing its functions appoint such other committees, as it may consider necessary.

(2) The Board may delegate to a committee such functions, as it may consider necessary.

(3) A member shall preside at a meeting of a committee.

(4) The Board may appoint, as a member of a committee, persons who are not members and those persons shall hold office for such a period as the Board may determine.

13. (1) If a member or person is present at a meeting of the Board or any committee of the Board at which any matter in which that person or that person's spouse is directly interested in a private capacity, is the subject of consideration, that member or person shall, as soon as is practicable, after the commencement of the meeting, disclose that interest and shall not unless the Board otherwise directs, take part in any consideration of, or discussion of or vote on that matter.

(2) A declaration of interest made under this section shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it was made.

14. A member of the Board or any committee of the Board shall be paid such allowance as the Board may, with the approval of the Minister, determine.

15. (1) A person shall not without the consent in writing given by, or on behalf of, the Board, publish or disclose to any person other than in the course of duties, the contents of any document, communication or information which relates to, and which has come to the person's knowledge in the course of the person's duties under this Act.
(2) Any person who knowingly contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both.

15A. (1) A person shall not in the course of trade or business and for the purpose of promoting the sale of services or products, use the name "Zambia Tourism Board" or any business name which includes the words "Tourism Board" or so closely resembles the name "Zambia Tourism Board" as to give the public the impression that that trade or business is conducted by, or on behalf of the Board, or with the consent or approval of the Board.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both
