(a) the chief executive officer of the Institute and Secretary to the Council; and

(b) responsible for the day-to-day administration of the institute.

(2) The Council shall appoint other staff that the Council considers necessary for the performance of its functions under this Act.

(3) The Registrar shall attend meetings of the Council or a committee of the Council and may address those meetings but shall have no vote.

(4) The Council shall determine the terms and conditions of service and emoluments of the Registrar and other staff of the Institute.

PART IV

REGISTRATION OF PRACTITIONERS AND ISSUANCE OF PRACTISING CERTIFICATE

11. (1) A person shall not be employed or practice as a practitioner unless that person is registered as a practitioner in accordance with this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

12. (1) A person who intends to be employed or to practice as a practitioner in the Republic shall apply to the Institute for registration in the prescribed manner and form on payment of a prescribed fee.

(2) The Institute may determine different fees for different classes of practitioners.

(3) The Institute may, within thirty days of receipt of an application under subsection (1), grant or reject the application.

(4) The Institute shall, where it rejects an application under subsection (3), inform the applicant and give reasons for the decision.
13. (1) The Institute shall, within fourteen days of the grant of an application under section 12, register an applicant as a practitioner if the Institute is satisfied that the applicant—

(a) possesses knowledge, training and experience as prescribed;

(b) who possesses a foreign qualification, is issued with a certificate of verification and evaluation for that qualification by the Zambia Qualifications Authority;

(c) is resident in the Republic, or has an established office or appointment in the Republic in the public relations and communication profession;

(d) is of good character and good professional standing; and

(e) meets other requirements that the Minister may, on the recommendation of the Institute, prescribe by statutory instrument.

(2) The Institute shall issue a practitioner with a certificate of registration in the prescribed form showing the practitioner’s class of membership.

(3) A certificate of registration shall remain the property of the Institute and shall have an unlimited period of validity, unless suspended or cancelled under this Act.

14. A person shall not qualify for registration as a practitioner if that person—

(a) is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty under this Act or any other written law in the preceding five years prior to the registration;

(b) is legally disqualified;

(c) is an undischarged bankrupt; or

(d) is found guilty of professional misconduct by the Disciplinary Committee and the Disciplinary Committee orders the cancellation of the certificate of registration of that practitioner.

15. A registered practitioner shall use the title or designation as prescribed in the constitution.
16. A practitioner registered under this Act shall notify the Registrar of any change in the particulars relating to the registration within seven days of the change.

17. (1) Subject to this Act, the Institute may suspend or cancel the registration of a practitioner where

(a) the Institute has reasonable grounds to believe that the registration was obtained through fraud, misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact;

(b) the practitioner is found guilty of professional misconduct under this Act or the code of ethics and the Disciplinary Committee orders the suspension or cancellation of the practitioner’s certificate of registration;

(c) the practitioner is convicted of an offence under any other written law and sentenced to imprisonment for a period exceeding six months without the option of a fine; or

(d) since the registration, circumstances have arisen disqualifying the practitioner from registration.

(2) The Institute shall, before suspending or cancelling the registration under subsection (1), give the practitioner an opportunity to be heard.

(3) The Institute may, before cancelling the registration of a practitioner, suspend the practitioner for a specified period and on terms and conditions that the Institute may determine.

(4) Where the Institute cancels the registration of a practitioner under this section, the name of the practitioner shall be removed from the register and shall not be restored except on conditions that may be prescribed, and on payment of a prescribed fee.

18. Where a certificate of registration is cancelled under section 17, the holder of the certificate of registration may, subject to the terms and conditions that the Institute may determine, apply for re-registration.

19. (1) A person shall not practice as a practitioner without a valid practising certificate issued to that person by the Institute under this Act.

(2) A person shall not offer employment to a person who does not hold a valid practising certificate issued under this Act.
(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

20. (1) A registered practitioner shall apply to the Institute for a practising certificate in the prescribed manner and form on payment of a prescribed fee.

(2) The Institute shall, within thirty days of the receipt of an application under subsection (1), and if the applicant meets the requirements of this Act, issue the applicant with a practising certificate in the prescribed form.

(3) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, on the recommendation of the Institute, make Regulations to provide for—

(a) the terms and conditions for the issuance of a practising certificate;

(b) the type of continuous professional development and training and any other information required for the issuance of a practising certificate; and

(c) any other matter necessary for the purposes of this Act.

21. A holder of a practising certificate shall display the practising certificate in a conspicuous place at the place of practice.

22. (1) A practising certificate shall be renewed annually in the prescribed manner and form on payment of a prescribed fee.

(2) A practising certificate that is not renewed in accordance with subsection (1) is void.

23. (1) Subject to this Act, the Institute may suspend or cancel a practising certificate if the holder—

(a) obtained the practising certificate through fraud, misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact;

(b) is convicted of an offence under any other written law and sentenced to imprisonment for a period exceeding six months without the option of a fine;
(c) becomes legally disqualified;

(d) is an undischarged bankrupt;

(e) is found guilty of professional misconduct and the Disciplinary Committee orders the suspension or cancellation of the practising certificate; or

(f) is de-registered under this Act.

2. The Institute shall, before suspending or cancelling the practising certificate of a practitioner under this section, give the practitioner an opportunity to be heard.

3. The Institute may, before cancelling the practising certificate of a practitioner, suspend the practitioner for a specified period and on terms and conditions that the Institute may determine.

4. Where a certificate of registration is cancelled under this Part, the practising certificate of the holder of the certificate of registration shall be void.

24. The Institute may, where a holder of a practising certificate does not intend to practice for a specified period of time, maintain the name of the holder of the practising certificate on the register, in a non-practising category, for that period of time.

25. A certificate of registration or practising certificate issued under this Part shall not be transferred to a third party.

26. (1) A person whose certificate of registration or practising certificate is destroyed or lost may apply to the Registrar for a duplicate certificate in the prescribed manner and form on payment of a prescribed fee.

(2) The Registrar may, within fourteen days of receipt of an application under subsection (1), issue a duplicate certificate of registration or practising certificate to the applicant.

27. A practitioner whose certificate of registration or practising certificate is cancelled shall, within seven days of being notified of the cancellation, surrender the certificate of registration or practising certificate to the Institute.
28. (1) The Institute shall keep and maintain registers of—
   (a) members;
   (b) registered practitioners;
   (c) the holders of practising certificates and persons whose practising certificates have been cancelled;
   (d) the applications rejected and reasons for the rejection;
   (e) students of public relations and communication; and
   (f) any other information that the Institute may determine.

(2) The registers referred to under subsection (1) shall contain particulars that may be prescribed.

(3) The registers shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar at the office of the Institute and shall be open for inspection to members of the public during normal office hours on payment of a fee that the Institute may determine.

(4) The Registrar shall, on an application by any person, issue to the person a certified extract from the registers or a copy of a certificate of registration or practising certificate, on payment of a fee as the Institute may determine.

29. (1) The Registrar shall, on the direction of the Council, cause copies of any of the registers, including alterations of, or additions to those registers, to be printed and published in a manner and form that the Council may direct.

(2) Subject to this Act, a copy of the last published and printed register shall be prima facie evidence in legal proceedings of what is contained in that register and the absence of the name of a practitioner, member or student from that copy, is prima facie evidence that the person is not registered as a practitioner, member or student.

30. (1) A person shall not—
   (a) make or cause to be made, an unauthorised entry, alteration or erasure on a register, certificate of registration or practising certificate, or on a certified copy of a register, certificate of registration or practising certificate;
   (b) procure or attempt to procure registration under this Act by fraud, misrepresentation or the concealment of a material fact;
(c) impersonate a registered practitioner or use the title or designation of a registered practitioner while not registered as a practitioner under this Act; or

(d) forge a certificate of registration, practising certificate or other document issued under this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

PART V

31. The Council shall adopt and publish a code of ethics for practitioners which shall bind practitioners registered under this Act.

32. A practitioner commits professional misconduct if the practitioner—

(a) contravenes a provision of this Act;

(b) unlawfully discloses or uses to the practitioner’s advantage any information acquired in the practice of the practitioner;

(c) engages in conduct that is dishonest, fraudulent or deceitful; or

(f) breaches the code of ethics or encourages another practitioner to breach or disregard the code of ethics.

33. (1) A person may lodge a complaint with the Institute against a practitioner where that person alleges that the practitioner has contravened the code of ethics or any provision of this Act.

(2) The Institute may initiate disciplinary action under this section where the Institute has reasonable grounds to believe that a practitioner has contravened the code of ethics or any provision of this Act.

(3) A complaint or allegation shall be made to the Registrar in the prescribed manner and form.

34. (1) The Council shall constitute a Disciplinary Committee consisting of the following part-time members:

(a) the Chairperson;

(b) the Vice-Chairperson;

(c) four practitioners, who are not members of the Council elected at the general meeting of the Institute; and

(d) a legal practitioner nominated by the Law Association of Zambia.
(2) The Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson shall be practitioners of the highest class of membership in the Institute.

(3) A person shall not be appointed as a member of the Disciplinary Committee if that person—

(a) is found guilty of professional misconduct under this Act;

(b) is an undischarged bankrupt;

(c) is legally disqualified from performing the functions of a member;

(d) in the case of a member under subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c), has not been on the register of practitioners for at least ten years preceding the appointment; or

(e) is convicted of an offence under any other written law and sentenced to imprisonment for a term exceeding six months without the option of a fine.

(4) A member of the Disciplinary Committee shall hold office for a term of three years and may be re-appointed for a further and final term of three years.

(5) A member shall, on expiration of the term for which the member is appointed continue to hold office until another member is appointed but in no case shall an extension of the period exceed three months.

(6) The office of a member becomes vacant if the member—

(a) dies;

(b) is adjudged bankrupt under any written law;

(c) is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Disciplinary Committee of which the member has notice, without the prior approval of the Disciplinary Committee;

(d) resigns by notice, in writing, to the Council;

(e) is legally disqualified from performing the duties of a member of the Disciplinary Committee;

(f) is found guilty of professional misconduct;

(g) is de-registered under this Act or any other written law; or

(h) is convicted of an offence under any other written law and sentenced to imprisonment for a term exceeding six months without the option of a fine.
(7) The Council shall, where there is a vacancy in the membership of the Disciplinary Committee before the expiry of the term of office, appoint another person to replace the member who vacates office but that person shall only hold office for the remainder of the term.

(8) The Registrar shall be the Secretary to the Disciplinary Committee but shall not vote on any matter before the Disciplinary Committee.

35. (1) The functions of the Disciplinary Committee are to hear and determine—

(a) any complaint referred to the Disciplinary Committee by the Institute against a practitioner; or

(b) a disciplinary action initiated against a practitioner under section 33(2).

(2) The Disciplinary Committee may publicise as the Disciplinary Committee considers appropriate, the facts relating to a practitioner who is found guilty of, and punished for, professional misconduct.

36. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Disciplinary Committee may regulate its own procedure.

(2) Five members of the Disciplinary Committee shall form a quorum at a meeting or sitting of the Disciplinary Committee.

(3) The Chairperson, or in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson shall preside at a meeting or sitting of the Disciplinary Committee.

(4) A question at a meeting or sitting of the Disciplinary Committee shall be decided by a majority of the members present at the meeting or sitting of the Disciplinary Committee and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting or sitting shall have a casting vote in addition to that person’s deliberative vote.

(5) The proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee shall be in camera.

(6) A party to a hearing of the Disciplinary Committee may appear in person or be represented by a legal practitioner or, if the party so elects, by any other person.
(7) A decision of the Disciplinary Committee shall be in the form of a reasoned judgment and a copy of the judgment shall be supplied to each party to the proceedings and to every person affected by the decision.

(8) If a person is present at a meeting or sitting of the Disciplinary Committee at which any matter is the subject of consideration, and in which matter that person or that person’s relative or associate is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, that person shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting or sitting, disclose the interest and shall not, unless the Disciplinary Committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question relating to that matter.

(9) A disclosure of interest made under this section shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(10) The Disciplinary Committee shall cause to be kept a record of its proceedings.

37. (1) The Disciplinary Committee may, for the purposes of a hearing, hear and receive evidence and may—

(a) under the hand of the Chairperson or the Registrar, summon witnesses and require the production of a book, record, document, electronic record or anything required for the purposes of the proceeding; and

(b) through the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson, administer an oath to a witness.

(2) A person summoned to attend before the Disciplinary Committee shall not—

(a) refuse or fail to attend at the time and place specified in the summons or, having attended, leave without the permission of the Disciplinary Committee;

(b) having attended, refuse to be sworn or to affirm;

(c) refuse, without lawful excuse, to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of that person’s knowledge and belief, a question lawfully put to that person; or

(d) refuse to produce a book, record, document or thing which that person has been required by summons to produce.
(3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, for that refusal or failure, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units.

(4) Despite subsection (2), a person shall not be compelled to answer any question or produce any book, record or document which that person would not be compelled to answer or produce on the trial of an action in the High Court.

(5) A hearing before the Disciplinary Committee shall, for the purposes of Chapter XI of the Penal Code Act, be deemed to be a judicial proceeding.

(6) A finding of fact which is shown to have been made by a court in the Republic shall, in any hearing before the Disciplinary Committee, be conclusive evidence of the fact so found.

(7) The Disciplinary Committee shall, where the Disciplinary Committee has reasonable cause to believe that a practitioner is legally disqualified, refer the matter for determination in accordance with the Mental Health Act, 2019.

(8) The Disciplinary Committee shall, where a determination is made in accordance with the Mental Health Act, 2019, that a practitioner is legally disqualified, suspend the practising certificate of the practitioner.

(9) The Disciplinary Committee shall, where the Disciplinary Committee finds, after due inquiry, that a practitioner is not guilty of professional misconduct, record a finding that the a practitioner is not guilty of the conduct to which the charge relates and dismiss the charge.

(10) The Disciplinary Committee may, for the purpose of any proceedings, use assessors or experts as the Disciplinary Committee considers necessary.

38. The Disciplinary Committee shall, where the Disciplinary Committee finds a practitioner guilty of professional misconduct, after due inquiry, impose one or more of the following penalties:

(a) order the cancellation of the a practitioner’s practising certificate or certificate of registration;

(b) order the suspension of the certificate of registration or practitising certificate for a specified period and on conditions as determined by the Disciplinary Committee;

(f) order that the practitioner be re-trained;

(g) order the practitioner to pay to the Institute or to a party to the hearing the costs of, or incidental to, the proceedings; or

(h) order the practitioner to pay any party to the hearing or any other person, as restitution, the amount of loss caused by that person’s negligence.

39. The Disciplinary Committee shall, within sixty days of receipt of complaint, hear and determine the complaint and submit to the Council a report of the proceedings together with a copy of the record.

40. (1) The Chief Justice may, by statutory instrument and on the recommendation of the Council, make Rules relating to the—

(a) manner and form for lodging of complaints under this Part;

(b) mode of summoning persons before the Disciplinary Committee;

(c) manner and form of service of a summons requiring the attendance of a witness before the Disciplinary Committee and the production of a book, record, document or thing;

(d) procedure to be followed and rules of evidence to be observed in proceedings before the Disciplinary Committee; and

(e) functions of assessors and experts to the Disciplinary Committee.

(2) Rules made under subsection (1) may provide—

(a) that before a matter is referred to the Disciplinary Committee it shall be in a manner that may be provided by the Rules investigated by the Institute;

(b) for securing notices for the proceedings and specifying the time and manner of the proceedings; and

(c) for securing that a party to the proceedings shall, if that person requires, be entitled to be heard by the Disciplinary Committee.
PART VI
INSPECTORATE

41. (1) The Council shall appoint suitably qualified persons as inspectors to ensure compliance with this Act.

(2) The Council shall provide an inspector with an identification card which shall be prima facie evidence of the inspector’s appointment as inspector.

(3) An inspector shall, in performing a function under this Act—

(a) be in possession of the identification card referred to in subsection (2); and

(b) show the identification card to a person who requests to see the identification card or is the subject of an investigation under this Act.

42. (1) An inspector may, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act, at any reasonable time, without prior notice, and on the authority of a warrant, enter any premises that the inspector has reasonable grounds to believe is used for the commission of an offence or contrary to the provisions of this Act, and—

(a) search the premises;

(b) search any person on the premises if the inspector has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has possession of an article, document or record that has a bearing on an inspection or investigation, except that a person shall only be searched by a person of the same sex;

(c) take extracts from, or make copies of, any book, document or record that is on the premises and that has a bearing on an inspection or investigation;

(d) demand the production of, and inspect, relevant certificates; and

(e) make inquiries that may be necessary to ascertain whether the provisions of this Act or any other law on which an inspection or investigation is based, have been complied with.
(2) A court may issue a warrant on application by an inspector if it appears from written information given by that inspector, on oath or affirmation, that there are reasonable grounds to believe that this Act has been or is likely to be contravened.

(3) An inspector who removes anything from any premises shall—

(a) issue a receipt for anything removed to the owner or the person in control of the premises; and

(b) return anything removed as soon as practicable after the thing removed has served the purpose for which it was removed.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

(6) An inspector shall furnish the Council with a written report and any other information relating to an inspection.

PART VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

43. (1) A person shall not knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading statement, orally or in writing, to the Institute or Disciplinary Committee with the intention that it be acted on by the Institute or Disciplinary Committee.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.
44. (1) A person aggrieved with a decision of the Disciplinary Committee may appeal to the High Court within thirty days of receipt of the decision.

(2) A decision of the Disciplinary Committee shall not take effect until the expiration of the time for lodging an appeal against the decision or, if an appeal is lodged, until the time the appeal is disposed of, withdrawn or struck out for want of prosecution.

(3) The proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee shall not be set aside by reason only of some irregularity in those proceedings if that irregularity did not occasion a substantial miscarriage of justice.

(4) A person aggrieved with a decision of the Institute may, within thirty days of receipt of the decision, appeal to the Minister.

(6) A person aggrieved with a decision of the Minister may appeal to the High Court.

45. (1) A court shall have jurisdiction over a practitioner for any act committed outside the Republic which, if it had been committed in the Republic, would have been an offence of professional misconduct under this Act.

(2) Any proceedings against a practitioner under this section which would be a bar to subsequent proceedings against that practitioner, for the same offence, if the offence had been committed in the Republic, shall be a bar to further proceedings against the practitioner under any written law relating to the extradition of persons, in respect of the same offence outside the Republic.

(3) The Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters Act applies to proceedings under this section.

46. (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by, or on behalf of, the Institute, publish or disclose to a person, other than in the course of duties of that person, the contents of a document, communication or information which relates to, or which has come to the knowledge of that person in the course of that person’s duties under this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.
(3) A person who, having information which to that person’s knowledge has been published or disclosed in contravention of subsection (1), unlawfully publishes or communicates the information to another person, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

47. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate or an unincorporate body, with the knowledge, consent or connivance of the director, manager, shareholder or partner of the body corporate or an unincorporate body, that director, manager, shareholder or partner commits the same offence as the body corporate or unincorporate body and is liable, on conviction, to the penalty specified for that offence under this Act.

48. (1) The Institute may impose an administrative penalty on a person for a failure to comply with a provision of this Act which is not an offence.

(2) An administrative penalty shall not exceed the amount prescribed by the Minister by statutory instrument for each day during which the failure continues.

(3) An administrative penalty shall be paid to the Institute within the period prescribed by the Minister.

(4) The Institute may, where a person fails to pay an administrative penalty within the stipulated period under subsection (3), by way of civil action in a competent court, recover the amount of the administrative penalty from that person as an amount due and owing to the Institute.

49. An action or other proceeding shall not lie or be instituted against a council member, a member of a committee of the Council, a member of the Disciplinary Committee and a member of staff of the Institute for, or in respect of, an act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or performance of a power or function conferred under this Act.

50. (1) The Institute may, in the exercise of its functions under this Act, issue guidelines as are necessary for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act.
(2) The Institute shall publish the guidelines issued under this Act in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Republic and in the Gazette, and the guidelines shall take effect on the date of publication.

(3) The guidelines issued by the Institute under this Act shall bind the persons regulated under this Act.

51. (1) The Minister may, by statutory instrument and on the recommendation of the Council, make Regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

(2) Despite the generality of subsection (1), Regulations may make provision for—

(a) the manner and form for applications under this Act and the fees payable;

(b) the form of and particulars to be entered on the registers;

(c) the form of the certificate of registration and the conditions under which the certificate of registration is issued;

(d) the qualifications for registration of a practitioner;

(e) the form of the practising certificate and the conditions under which the practising certificate is issued;

(f) the code of ethics to which practitioners shall subscribe;

(g) the continuous professional development for practitioners;

(h) the fees payable for professional services and any other fees which are required to be prescribed; and

(i) any other matter under this Act which requires to be prescribed.
