PART III

ACCREDITATION OF EXAMINATION CENTRES

8. (1) A person shall not operate an educational institution as an examination centre without accreditation by the Council.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

9. (1) A person who intends to operate an educational institution as an examination centre shall apply to the Council for accreditation of the educational institution as an examination centre in the prescribed manner and form on payment of a prescribed fee.
(2) The Council shall, on receipt of an application under subsection (1), carry out an inspection of the educational institution within ten days of receipt of the application in order to determine whether the educational institution meets the requirements for accreditation as may be prescribed.

(3) The Council shall, within thirty days of the inspection conducted under subsection (2), grant or reject the application.

(4) The Council shall, where the Council rejects an application under this section, inform the applicant, in writing, stating the reasons for the rejection.

10. (1) The Council may, where additional information is required to process an application for accreditation under section 9, request an applicant to furnish the Council with additional information in a prescribed manner and form within a period that the Council may determine.

(2) Despite the other provisions of this Act, the Council may reject an application for accreditation if the applicant fails to submit the additional information requested under subsection (1).

11. (1) The Council shall, where the Council grants an application under section 9, issue the educational institution with a certificate of accreditation in the prescribed manner and form on terms and conditions that the Council may determine.

(2) A certificate of accreditation issued in accordance with this section shall be valid for a period of three years from the date of issuance.

12. (1) A holder of a certificate of accreditation issued under section 11 may, sixty days prior to the expiration of the validity of the accreditation, apply to the Council for a renewal of the certificate of accreditation in the prescribed manner and form on payment of a prescribed fee.

(2) The Council shall, on receipt of an application under subsection (1), ensure compliance with the accreditation requirements as a condition for the renewal of accreditation.

(3) The Council shall, within thirty days of receiving an application under subsection (1), grant or reject the application.

(4) The Council shall, where the Council rejects an application under this section, inform the applicant, in writing, stating the reasons for the rejection.

(5) The Council shall, where the Council grants an application under this section, renew the certificate of accreditation in accordance with section 11.
13. (1) The Council shall carry out an inspection of an examination centre to ensure compliance with the accreditation requirements.

(2) The Council may, where an inspection is carried out under subsection (1) and it is found that an examination centre is not complying with one or more of the accreditation requirements, suspend or revoke the accreditation of the examination centre in accordance with section 14.

14. (1) Subject to this Act, the Council may suspend or revoke a certificate of accreditation if the holder of the certificate of accreditation—

(a) obtained the certificate of accreditation through fraud, misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact;

(b) assigns, cedes or otherwise transfers the certificate of accreditation without the prior approval of the Council;

(c) does not comply with a term or condition of accreditation;

(d) fails an inspection carried out under section 13;

(e) is closed or has its certificate of registration cancelled under the Education Act, 2011; or

(f) operates the examination centre in contravention of this Act or any other written law.

(2) The Council shall, before suspending or revoking a certificate of accreditation in accordance with subsection (1), notify the holder of the certificate of accreditation of the Council’s intention to suspend or revoke the certificate of accreditation in the prescribed manner and form, and shall—

(a) give reasons for the intended suspension or revocation; and

(b) require the holder of the certificate of accreditation to—

(i) show cause, within a reasonable time that the Council may specify in the notice, why the accreditation should not be suspended or revoked; or

(ii) remedy the default.

(3) The Council shall not suspend or revoke a certificate of accreditation if the holder of the certificate of accreditation shows cause or takes remedial measures to the satisfaction of the Council within the period specified in accordance with subsection (2).
(4) The Council shall, in making the final determination on the suspension or revocation of the certificate of accreditation consider the remedial measures undertaken by the holder of the certificate of accreditation in accordance with subsection (2).

(5) The Council shall suspend or revoke the certificate of accreditation if the holder of the certificate of accreditation does not show cause or take remedial measures to the satisfaction of the Council in accordance with subsection (2), and notify the holder of the certificate of accreditation of the suspension or revocation in the prescribed manner and form.

15. (1) A holder of a certificate of accreditation may, at any time during the validity of the certificate of accreditation, apply to the Council for a variation of the terms and conditions of the certificate of accreditation if there are any changes to the examination centre or the operations of the examination centre.

(2) An application made under subsection (1) shall be made in the prescribed manner and form on payment of a prescribed fee.

(3) The Council shall, within thirty days of receipt of an application under subsection (1), approve or reject the application.

(4) The Council shall, where the Council rejects an application under subsection (1), notify the applicant, in writing, stating the reasons for the rejection.

(5) The Council shall, where the Council approves an application under subsection (1), endorse and date the variation on the certificate of accreditation.

16. A holder of a certificate of accreditation shall display the certificate of accreditation in a conspicuous place at the examination centre.

17. (1) A holder of a certificate of accreditation shall not assign, cede or transfer the certificate of accreditation without the prior written approval of the Council.

(2) A holder of a certificate of accreditation who intends to assign, cede or transfer the certificate of accreditation shall apply to the Council for approval in the prescribed manner and form on payment of a prescribed fee.

(3) The Council shall, within thirty days of receipt of an application under subsection (2), approve or reject the application.

(4) The Council shall, where the Council rejects an application under this section, inform the applicant, in writing, stating the reasons for the rejection.
(5) The Council shall, where the Council approves an application under this section and the Council is satisfied that the requirements of this Act are met, re-issue the certificate of accreditation in the new name of the examination centre.

18. (1) A holder of a certificate of accreditation shall, where the holder of the certificate of accreditation does not intend to continue operating an examination centre, notify the Council in the prescribed manner and form, and shall surrender the certificate of accreditation.

(2) The Council shall, where a certificate of accreditation is surrendered under subsection (1), revoke the certificate of accreditation subject to conditions that the Council may impose with respect to the cessation of the activities of the examination centre.

(2) A person referred to under subsection (1) who does, or omits to do, an act in contravention of the oath of secrecy commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to both.
38. (1) A person who is aggrieved with a decision of the Council may, within thirty days of receipt of the decision, appeal to the Minister.

(2) A person who is aggrieved with a decision of the Minister may appeal to the High Court.

39. (1) A person commits an offence if that person —

(a) without lawful excuse, during or after an examination, has in that person’s possession or under the control of that person an examination material or any information relating to the contents of an examination;

(b) willfully loses examination material or causes to be lost an examination material;

(c) recklessly or willfully assists or causes to be assisted a candidate to obtain unauthorised possession of an examination material or information relating to an examination; or

(d) willfully and maliciously damages examination material or examination facilities.

(2) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

(3) A person referred to under subsection (2) shall, where the offender is a candidate, in addition to the penalty specified under subsection (2), be barred for a period of three years, from sitting for an examination set by the Council.

40. (1) The Council may impose an administrative penalty on a person for a failure to comply with a provision of this Act which is not an offence.

(2) An administrative penalty shall not exceed the amount prescribed by the Minister, by statutory instrument, for each day during which the failure continues.

(3) An administrative penalty shall be paid to the Council within the period prescribed.

(4) If a person on whom an administrative penalty is imposed in accordance with this section fails to pay the administrative penalty within the time specified under subsection (3), the Council may, by way of civil action in a competent court, recover the amount of the administrative penalty from that person as an amount due and owing to the Council.
41. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate or an unincorporate body, with the knowledge, consent or connivance of the director, manager, shareholder or partner of the body corporate or an unincorporate body, that director, manager, shareholder or partner is liable, on conviction, to the penalty specified for the offence under this Act.

42. (1) The Council may, in the exercise of the Council’s functions under this Act, issue guidelines that are necessary for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Council shall publish guidelines issued under this Act in the Gazette, in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Republic and any other electronic means that the Council may determine.

(3) The guidelines issued by the Council shall take effect on the date of publication and shall bind all persons on matters relating to this Act.

43. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Council, by statutory instrument, make Regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

(2) Despite subsection (1), Regulations made under subsection (1) may make provision for—

(a) the manner and form of applications under this Act and the fees payable;

(b) the manner and form of registration of a candidate;

(c) the qualification and disqualification of candidates;

(d) examination fees and other examination related charges;

(e) the appointment, qualifications, allowances and additional functions of examination officers;

(f) the conditions for the award of certificates;

(g) the procedure for the suspension, cancellation or nullification of an examination;

(h) the conduct and rules of examinations;

(i) the procedures to be followed by examinations officers;

(j) the manner of storage, retention and disposal of examination scripts; and

(k) the grounds and procedure for challenging examination results by a candidate.

44. (1) The Examinations Council of Zambia Act, 1983 is repealed.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the provisions of the Second Schedule apply in respect of the matters specified in the Second Schedule.
FIRST SCHEDULE

(Sections 3(2) and 5(5))

PART I

ADMINISTRATION OF THE COUNCIL

1. (1) The seal of the Council shall be a device that may be determined by the Board and shall be kept by the Executive Director.

(2) The affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by the Chairperson or the Vice-Chairperson and the Executive Director or any other person authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the Board.

(3) A contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by a person not being a body corporate, is not required to be under seal, may be entered into or executed without seal on behalf of the Council by the Executive Director or any other person authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the Board.

(4) A document purporting to be a document under the seal of the Council or issued on behalf of the Council shall be received in evidence and shall be considered to be so executed or issued, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

2. (1) A member of the Board shall, subject to other provisions of this Act, hold office for a term of three years from the date of appointment and may be re-appointed for a further and final term of three years.

(2) A member shall, on the expiration of the term for which the member is appointed, continue to hold office until another member is appointed, but in no case shall an extension of the period exceed three months.

(3) The office of member becomes vacant if the member—

(a) dies;

(b) is adjudged bankrupt under any written law;

(c) is absent, without reasonable excuse, from three consecutive meetings of the Board of which the member has had notice, without the prior approval of the Board;

(d) resigns, by giving one month’s notice in writing, to the Council;

(e) is legally disqualified from performing the functions of a member;

(f) ceases to be an employee or a member of the ministry, institution or organisation that nominated the member; and

(g) is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other written law and sentenced to imprisonment for a term exceeding six months without the option of a fine.
(4) The Minister shall, where the office of a member becomes vacant before the expiry of the term of office, appoint another member in place of that member, but that member shall hold office as a member only for the unexpired part of the term of the Board.

3. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

(2) The Board shall meet for the transaction of business at least once every three months at a place and time that the Board may determine.

(3) The Chairperson shall, on giving notice of not less than fourteen days, call for a meeting of the Board, or where one third or more of the members so request, in writing, except that if the urgency of a particular matter does not permit the giving of a notice, a special meeting may be called on giving a shorter notice.

(4) Five members shall form a quorum at a meeting of the Board.

(5) There shall preside at any meeting of the Board—

(a) the Chairperson;

(b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson; or

(c) in the absence of the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, a member as the members present may elect for the purpose of that meeting.

(6) A decision of the Board on any question shall be by a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and, in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to the deliberative vote.

(7) A member may, where the member is for any reason unable to attend a meeting of the Board, nominate another person, in writing, from the same ministry, institution or organisation to attend a meeting of the Board in that member’s stead and that person shall be deemed to be a member for the purpose of that meeting.

(8) The Board may invite a person whose presence is in the Board’s opinion desirable to attend and to participate in the deliberations of the meeting of the Board but that person shall have no vote.

(9) The Board shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings of every meeting of the Board and any committee of the Board.
4. (1) The Board may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, constitute a committee and delegate any of its functions to the committee as the Board considers necessary.

(2) The Board may appoint as members of a committee, persons who are or are not members except that at least one member of the Board shall be a member of a committee.

(3) A member of a committee shall hold office for a period that the Board may determine.

(4) Subject to any specific or general directions of the Board, a committee may regulate its own procedure.

5. A member of the Board or any committee of the Board shall be paid allowances that the Emoluments Commission may, on the recommendation of the Minister, determine.

6. (1) A person who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board at which any matter is the subject of consideration and in which matter that person or that person’s relative or associate is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, declare that interest and shall not, unless the Board or the committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question relating to that matter.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under subparagraph (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which is made.

7. An action or other proceedings shall not lie or be instituted against a member of the Board or a committee of the Board or a member of staff of the Council for, or in respect of, an act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or performance of any of the powers, functions or duties conferred under this Act.

PART II
