The Animal Health Act
(No. 27 of 2010)

Notification of Outbreak of Contagious Bovine Pleura
Pneumonia in Kazungula District and the Control
Measures Instituted therein

IN ACCORDANCE with the provisions of Section 12, 22 and 23 of the Animal Health Act of 2010 of the Laws of Zambia, it is notified for the information of the Public in General and the Farming Community in particular that there is an outbreak of contagious Bovine Pleura pneumonia (CBPP) in cattle in Mokononga village of Kazungula Central Veterinary Camp of Kazungula District in Southern Province of Zambia. In view of this occurrence, the under listed measures will apply in the District with immediate effect until further notice.

- (1) Restriction of movement and quarantine of all cattle in the Kazungula Central to prevent further spread.
- (2) Filtering of the affected herds to the abattoir by Department of Veterinary Services
- (3) Carrying out comprehensive screening of all herds in Kazungula Central Veterinary Camp and adjacent Veterinary Camps through sero-surveillance to determine the extent of the infection and filtering of the positive herds to the abattoir.
- (4) Community policing is key in CBPP control therefore community task forces are hereby revived and allowed to stop any animal that is being moved illegally to curb the spread of the disease.
- (5) Branding of the cattle in Kazungula.

To this effect, the Ministry of Fisheries and Livestock has instituted control measures and farmers and members of the public are requested to cooperate as these measures are being implemented.

Any person or persons found contravening the measures directly or indirectly will be prosecuted and any cattle or cattle products involved will be destroyed without compensation.
