Request for Expressions of Interest (EOI)Tender: ZESCO/031/2017: Expression of Interest for the Implementation of Audit Management System—ZESCO.Introduction*

ZESCO Limited seeks to implement an Audit Management System that best meets the needs of the Corporation.

ZESCO Limited now invites eligible Consulting Firms to express interest in the Implementation of Audit Management System. The Consultants may associate with both local and foreign consultants to enhance their qualifications.

Background

In 2004, ZESCO embarked on the implementation of integrated Business Information Systems which saw the introduction of eight new systems in ZESCO Limited. This completely changed ZESCO's business processes from manual to outline ZESCO business operations are now fully dependent on availability of computer hardware and relevant system software for critical operations and business functions. Furthermore, in 2007, ZESCO Limited introduced prepaid metering system for its customers which changed the model of billing from Postpaid to Prepaid billing. This also increased the number of online transactions.

Since the onset of computerized business processes, a large number of online transactions are produced on a daily basis. Auditors are supposed to analyse these online transactions and form an opinion thereon. This is a big challenge without the use of a computerized system. Use of technology will assist Internal Audit to function at an optimal level and deliver for greater insights and value to ZESCO's Stakeholders.

Given the above premise, Expression of Interest (EOI) proposal are being sought from prospective Consulting Firms for the Implementation of an Audit Management System.

Scope

The objective of the Audit Management System is to tie together a range of different internal audit processes into on seamless, interconnected system. The System at the very least should have the capabilities outlined below.

Analytical Capability

The Audit Management System should be able to continuously monitor and analyse transactions for the following Enterprise Resource Planning modules:

- (i) General Ledger;
- (ii) Accounts payables;
- (iii) Vendor Management;
- (iv) Sales Analysis;
- (v) Accounts receivables;
- (vi) Human Resources;
- (vii) Payroll;
- (ix) Purchase Order Management; and
- (x) Stock and Inventory Management

Modularity and Functionality

The Audit Management System should be able to:

- (i) Enforce separation of duties and administer roles and access permissions amongst administrators, compliance officers and business managers who will have access to the system to perform different duties as required;
- (ii) Monitor and analyse transactions on specific areas of focus without interfering with other modules being monitored and analysed;
- (iii) Schedule, automate data from multiple sources. It should also enable users to schedule and automate data extraction at off-peak hours;

(iv) Use a centralized repository in a team environment for all analytic tests and collections that should be shared amongst team members to ensure standardization and reuse of analytics;

(v) Ensure security on data collected to eliminate the risk of data loss or theft;

(vi) Conduct deeper ad-hoc investigation on analytic results i.e after identifying exceptions using analytic tests, the tool should provide a facility to users to perform further analysis on data results;

(v) Ensure security on data collected to eliminate the risk of data loss or theft;

(vi) Conduct deeper ad-hoc investigation on analytic results i.e after identifying exceptions using analytic test, the tool should provide a facility to users to perform further analysis on data results;

(vii) Conduct ad-hoc investigations on previously unidentified transactional anomalies, errors or discrepancies;

(viii) Archive analytic results in a repository to facilitate forensic investigations and future references;

(ix) Provide access to other stakeholders and business process owners outside the Risk and Audit Function such as business managers to view analytic results based on their roles and responsibilities without having to license them on the system; and

(x) Should have built-in scripts that could immediately be deployed for transaction monitoring and analysis in addition to the custom scripts that will be developed to meet specific needs.

In order for the Consulting Firm to be shortlisted, it should demonstrate the below stipulated minimum experience and expertise requirements.

Experience and Expertise of the Consulting Firm

(i) A proven track record of having successfully Implemented at least Audit Management Systems with reference and contact persons provided of similar magnitude;

(ii) The head consultant must have at least five years' experience in Audit Management Systems;

(iii) The Consulting firm should also provide curriculum vitae for at least 5 key personnel with relevant experience to oversee the implementation of the system;

(iv) The Consulting Firm should ensure availability of local support for continued technical support and maintenance of the solution to be provided; and

(v) The Consulting Firm should be able to provide Audit Management Systems training the System Administrators and end users respectively at a designated authorised training Institution.

The Expression of Interest must be deposited in the Tender Box, Ground Floor, Regional Control Centre Building, adjacent to ZESCO Filling Station, Stand Number 6949, Great East Road on or before Friday, 16th June, 2017 at 1030 hours local time.
