3. The principal Act is amended by the insertion immediately after section nine A of the following new section:

Insertion of new section 9B
Transactions designed to avoid tax liability

9B. (1) Where the Commissioner-General has reasonable grounds to believe that the main purpose or one of the main purposes for which any transaction was effected was the avoidance or reduction of liability to tax for any charge year, or that the main benefit which might have been expected to accrue from the transaction within the three years immediately following the completion thereof, was the avoidance or reduction of liability to tax, the Commissioner-General may, if the Commissioner-General determines it to be just and reasonable, direct that such adjustments shall be made as respects liability to tax as the Commissioner-General considers appropriate to counteract the avoidance or reduction of liability to tax which would otherwise be effected by the transaction.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by subsection (1), the powers conferred thereby extend to—

(a) the charging with tax the income of persons who, but for the adjustments, would not be chargeable with any tax or would not be chargeable to the same extent; and
