	(b) Eastern and Southern Africa, India, Pakistan and the rest (per night)	US$225

Explanatory Notes

(a) Annual allowance for Mayor and Chairman shall be paid in arrears on a monthly basis.

(b) Subsistence allowance is payable where a councillor is required to stay for one or more nights in any place other than his usual place of abode on civic functions.

(c) The number of nights to be spent by a councillor who is on duty outside the Council area shall be determined by the Principal Officer in consultation with the Provincial Local Government Officer.

(d) Depending upon the local distances and transport situation in the District, a Council in a rural area shall in consultation with the Provincial Local Government Officer fix, in respect of each councillor resident outside 32 kilometres radius from the civic centre or Council Chamber, the number of nights for which the councillor can claim subsistence allowance per session.

(e) A councillor who stays at a Council Rest house or Motel shall be paid subsistence allowance less the cost of boarding and lodging. If the charges are higher than the rate of subsistence allowance payable, the Councillor shall be required to immediately make good any shortfall.

(f) Sitting Allowance shall cover out of pocket expenses whilst attending any Council meeting and it shall be payable on a daily basis during the session. A session shall not exceed three working days and shall exclude weekends and public holidays.
